Pajama Program’s Book Donation Policy

Pajama Program accepts new and unused books for children ages newborn to 18 years old (i.e. children's story books, chapter books).

Please note we do not accept activity, coloring, library, gently used, or “like new” books.

As a rule, Pajama Program does not accept donations of self-published books. However, we may consider self-published books that:

- Are written by an author with at least one traditional commercially published work
- Have been subsequently published, in a new edition, by a traditional commercial publisher
- Have garnered a significant readership (determined by sales rankings, bestseller lists, and other criteria deemed appropriate by Pajama Program)
- Are of demonstrable literary merit or captures the expressions of an underrepresented culture or community (determined by review sources, nomination for literary awards, and other criteria deemed appropriate by Pajama Program)
